THE NEW YORK HORTICULTURAL REVIEW A JOURNAL OF SUBURBAN ART. Devoted to the Advancement of the Rural Intests in America.

THIS is one of the largest and most elaborate works of the kind in the world.

Rural Architecture forms one of the principal features. Each number contains from two to four engravings of model cottages, from designs by eminent and skilfus architects. Space is also assigned to the tasteful art of Landscape Gurdening; engraved plans of gardens in every style, and adapted to the peculiarities of different orders of architecture, beautify the work.

Engravings of new fruits, new flowers, new vegetables, dec., are illustrated and described as soon as their respective qualities can be determined, forming the most complete and elegant Manual of Rural Husbandry ever attempted.

An experienced corps of practical writers, seven at spective qualities can be determined, forming the most complete and elegant Manual of Rural Husbandry ever attempted.

An experienced corps of practical writers, seven in number, are engaged to fill its columns.

It contains seventy large pages, and is printed on the finest pearl-surfaced paper, manufactured expressly.

Tenns:—82 per annum, payable invariably in advance fifty cents commission on each subscriber allowed to those who act as agents.

$1,000 will be distributed at the end of the year among those who send us the twent, largest lists of subscribers. These premiums will be paid in cash. The first premium will be $500.

The following are selected from hundreds of similar notices, voluntarily contributed by contemporaneou publications:—

The HORTICULTURAL REVIEW deserves the most libera patronage. It is not only eminently practical, but is written in a style that equals the best efforts of the late Ad. Downing.—Knickerbecker.

The most elegant and useful book of the kind that have ever come under our observation.—Register.

Mr. Reaglos, the Editor of the Horticultural Review is a practical pomologist, and one of the finest scholarour country boasts of. He possesses the glowing descriptive powers of Dickens, the elegant gossip of Walpoie combined with a thorough knowledge of rural art. State Police Tribane.

Farmers, buy it for your sons—buy it for your daughters. It is a rich intellectual treat; a rare combination of the beautiful and the useful.—Agray, N. F.

We had thought that in Downing's death, the eloquent advocate of rural adorument had become only a cherished remembrance; but in Mr. Reagles we discover in equally rich mine of mental wealth, that betokens the influence of the spirit that is gone.—Montross Tribune.

Advertisers will find this an unsurpassed medium of publicity, as the Horticurural Review circulates extensively in every State in the Union. Advertisements inserted at the rate of $10 per page.

CHERRY PECTORAL, For the rapid Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND

CONSUMPTION. Among the numerous discoveries Science has made 'n this generation to facilitate the business of life-increase its enjoyment, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely conrol and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures affected by its use, but we would present the following:-and refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the agents below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are full particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements.

J. C. AYER. Dear Sir,—My little son, four years old has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten, and every person that visited him, pronounced him a dead child. Having used your CERREY PECTORAL in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire success, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a tea-spoon-full every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by ten o'clock at night. I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use, he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent. For all affections of the Throat and Lungs, I believe it the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude, prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.

I am yours, with great respect,

J. D. POWELL. Supt. Trans., L. R. R.

Rock Hill, (Summerset Co..) N. J., July 21, 1852.

Dr. J. C. Ayer.—Since your medicine has been known here, it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it, is not too much for the good it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers.

J. C. AYER. Sir: This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year; and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, and I do not overstate my convictions when I tellyou it is a priceless remedy.

Yours very respectfully.

Attention is particularly called here to two or three points in the law: First, that the allowance is made directly to the Treasurer. Secondly, that he is made directly to the Treasurer. The allowance, then being directly "to the Treasurer," gives to him full and complete power and authority to draw it in the usual way; and the other words, "to enable him to employ the services of a clerk to aid him in the performance of his duties," do not destroy the effect of the preceding language, nor make the allowance conditional in lay. Those words have no legally qualifying effect on the allowance directly and pos-them no positive command or requirement.

The foregoing view leaves no difficulty in the way of construing the letter of the act, and as a mere legal question upon the law and legal construction of its provisions, this committee are unanimously of opinion, that Mr. Wintersmith had entire legal right and authority to draw said allowance from the treasury-a discre lowance for which he has not the letter of the law to sustain him.

But there is another point of view, from which

But there is another point of view, from which this committee think this matter must be looked at, suggested by the act itself. That is, what was the design, understanding and expectation of the Legislature, in making the allowance of five hungred deligns reactions.

He can the same is hereby repealed.

Mr. CLEMENT, from the same committee, made a minority report.

[The report will be published in to-morrow's paper.]

The bill was then ordered to a third reading. dred dollars per annum to the Treasurer?

The Legislature has said, in the act under consideration, that the allowance was made to the Freasurer, "to enable him to employ the services of a clerk, to aid him in the performance of duties." In the opinion of your committee, the words just quoted from the act, show that the Legislature understood that Mr. Wintersmith could not reasonably perform all the duties of his office; that the services of a clerk were needed by him; that he was not able, out of his ewn salary, to employ those services, and that he ought not to be required to do so. Under these circumstances the Legislature passed the act, allowing five hundred dollars to the Treasurer, "to enable him," as they say, "to employ the services of a clerk to aid him in the performance of his duties." We presume that the Legislature expected the Treasurer to employ a clerk with the allowance, else the act would not have contained any reference to the employment of a contained any reference to the employment of a clerk. We are forced to this opinion, or else to presume that the Legislature used those words as cover to some design which they could not or would not carry out, directly or openly-a pre-sumption not to be indulged for a moment. The fact that the appropriation was made directly to the Treasurer, furnishes no argument against the view just expressed, because the Treasurer, being himself alone responsible for the proper nanagement of his office, ought to have the powelect such a person, as his clerk, in whom e had confidence, and no doubt but that ought of when the act was passed. We can ords "to enable him to employ the services of ; clerk to aid him in the performance of his duies," to the allowance, unless it was to satisfied that a majority of the Legislature who passed the act did not intend or expect the allowance to be retained by the Treasurer—the words the act last quoted forbid such an idea-neither can it be supposed that the Legislature de-signed employing the Treasurer as a clerk, or that he should employ himself as a clerk in an office of which he himself was the chief and head. The Legislature would never do such an act, or confer such power on any public officer, for it would thereby destroy all responsibility, set a most per ious precedent, justly subject itself to the charge of recklessness, and richly merit condemnatio ut suppose we concede, for a moment, that the Legislature meant that Mr. Wintersmith should discharge the duties for which the allowance was made, and retain it, into what a ridiculous and anomalous posture it puts the Legisla-ture! By such a concession Mr. Wintersmith is authorized by the Legislature to enter into a contract with Mr. Wintersmith, whereby he becomes not only Treasurer of Kentucky, at a salary of $1,700, but also the clerk of the Treasurer, [himself,] at a salary of $500! We cannot think the Legislature ever intended any such thing as that, and therefore dismiss any such idea. We cannot either entertain the preumption that the Legislature, or a majority of

This view of the whole statute, brings the committee to the opinion that though by the wording of the act Mr. Wintersmith was legally achievements of the revolutionary war, reported entitled to draw the allowance, and had a like said resolutions without amendment, and the quespower as to its appropriation, yet, that in a strict view of the spirit and intention of the act as gathered from itself, the appropriation to himself of the money was in violation of the underof the money was in violation of the understanding, design, and expectation of the Legislature, or a majority of the members, who passed the act, and that therefore he was not, in that view of the act ontitled to the members. The Legislature, there fore, "to enable the Treasurer to employ the services of a clerk to aid him in the performance of his du ties," and to remedy the evil it thought existed, passed the act allowing to him the sum of $500 per annum. Merely looking then, at the reasons which we suppose influenced the Legislature to make Said bill reads as follows: we suppose influenced the Legislature to make the allowance, gathered from the language of only a part of the act, and leaving out of view plain, express and positive; that the allowance of $500 per annum "to the Treasurer," is complete; ance with this act shall be null and voidthat the words "to enable him to employ the services of a clerk to aid him in the performance of striking out all after the word "another," print his duties," do not imperatively require him to ed in italics, and insert the following words: pay the same to a clerk, (although it puts it into the power of the Treasurer to do so if he chooses, and in our opinion shows that the Legislature of the Mr. MONTGOMERY offered the following words:

Parts of the large farm of S. F. J. TRABUE, lying on the waters of South Elkhorn, in the county of Franklin, about 5 miles from Frankfort, and upon the Leestown road from Frankfort to Lexington.
One tract contains 340½ ACRES, with a creek passing directly through it, and hearly surrounded by a new stone wall of the very best structure and material. The whole of the tract is in a very high state of cultivation, nearly all being first rate hemp land, a good portion well set in blue grass, with a bold never failing spring near the house. It has a

GOOD DWELLING HOUSE.

Stables, Grainaries, an excellent Orchard of Pears and Apples, and likewise an abundance of timber for all purposes desired. The other tract lies adjacent to the one just described, containing 1841 ACRES,

And not inferior in any particular, well watered by the same creek passing through it, a sufficiency of timber for all purposes desired, a spring of excellent water bursting out of the eminence upon which the house stands, and likewise nearly surrounded by the same character of stone wall described above.

The first tract is lot No. 4, and the second is lot No. 5, as 4 escribed upon a plot now in my possession, which any one can see by calling at my office in the city of Frankfort. A credit of six, twelve, and eighteen months will be yen, and a lien retained to secure the payment of the nechase money.

TO THE FARMERS STATE OF KENTUCKY!

WE respectfully call the attention of the farmers of Kentucky, to COWEN & GREADER'S Corn and Grist Mill! Now on exhibition, and running, at Hardy's Tan Yard. Frankfort, Ky. For the quality of meal made by this Mill, we challenge competition. The said Mill requires but two-horse power, and will give general satisfaction to all that will examine or use it. It will grind from 6 to 8 bushels per hour, at ordinary running speed, and it occupies but little space. Farmers are particularly requested to call and examine it.

Application for Insurance received by Joint C. Hernbon, Agent, Frankfort, Ky., who will furnish applicants with pamphiets containing rates, conditions, dec.
The Agency of this Company, at Frankfort, Ky., has been in existence one year last May, during which time one loss had occurred. This risk was that taken by the late Isaac P. Blackwell, for the benefit of his wife. One premium only had been paid (about $74.) on $5,000. The whole $5,000 was paid to Mrs. Elackwell, whose acknowledgment is given below.

This presents one of the many instances in which the benefits of Life Insurance is fully illustrated. The assured had failed in business, left nothing for his wife, except what resulted from the insurance on his life, which be had been so thoughtful in making.

FRANKFORT, Oct. 31, 1835.

Agent of the Charter Oak Life Insurance Go.:

DEAR SIR: Allow me, through you, to express my gratitude for the receipt of five thousand dollars, the full amount of the risk taken for my benefit by my late husband, isaac P. Blackwell. I most highly appreciate the benefit resulting to me from this provident act of my late husband, and will ever remember it with gratitude. Hoping that the Company may be prosperous in all time to come, and that it may continue to extend its protection to the widow and orphan, to the widow and orphan I remain yours &c.. SUSAN E. BLACKWELL
